

REGISTRATIONS NOW OPEN FOR THE 2016 AUGUSTA MARKETS PRE-CHRISTMAS EVENT

Regional Development Australia Far North and the Port Augusta City Council are pleased to announce that registrations are now open for the eighth Augusta Markets to be held on Saturday 26 November 2016.

The November 2016 Augusta Markets serves as a great lead-in event to the Christmas shopping period and will open from 9am to 2pm, with more than 100 stalls and business expected to be showcased on the day.

Commercial Road will again be closed to traffic, creating a much safer and vibrant market atmosphere.

This Augusta Markets promises to be as big as previous markets and a record crowd from across the region expected.

It is a day for all the family, with plenty of fun, entertainment and shopping for all ages.

Stallholders can register by going to the www.rdafn.com.au website and following the links or by telephoning 8641 1444.
