Deputy Chair of Regional Development Australia Far North – Application form	7

Overview

Regional Development Australia (RDA) Far North is a collaboration between federal, state, and local governments focused on assisting the region's economic growth and development. RDA Far North is a non-profit incorporated association administered by a committee of industry specialists from across the Far North. Our committee and operational team aim to foster relationships between governments, regional development organisations, local enterprises, community groups, and other key regional players in order to deliver strategic and focused responses to regional economic possibilities (and challenges).

RDA Far North encompasses a massive area of 799,850 square kilometres in northern South Australia, including sparsely inhabited land. It covers 80 percent of the state's land area and has a population of about 26,029 people. The region is loosely defined as the territory between the Aboriginal Lands on the Western Australian border and Yunta and Cockburn in the east, as well as all areas northwards to the Queensland and Northern Territory borders.

Resources, tourism, transportation, renewable energy, defence, emerging industries, services, cuisine, and the arts all present significant prospects for economic expansion in the region. RDA Far North is dedicated to promoting this development for the benefit of the Far North community.

RDA Far North is operationally based in Port Augusta and the Committee meets eight times per financial year. To enable effective participation of Committee Members, four meetings are held via a virtual platform to bring the Committee together, and four meetings are held in Port Augusta with Members required to attend in person. There are also opportunities for face-to-face meetings on an annual basis either in Port Augusta or through regional visits.

For more information on RDA Far North please visit our website www.rdafn.com.au or contact our CEO, Claire Wiseman on 08 8641 1444. For more information on the RDA Far North Committee please contact Mark Sutton, Chair of RDA Far North on chair@rdafn.com.au

Selection process description

Applying for Deputy Chair and Committee member positions on the RDA Far North Committee involves completing this form and providing a brief Curriculum Vitae (CV). These documents should be returned to Claire Wiseman at ceo@rdafn.com.au. Once submitted, you should receive email confirmation that your application has been received. The application process involves the following steps and indicative timeframes:

1. Processing of applications – once applications close, they will be considered by the Chair/Selection Panel. This process may take up to two weeks.
2. Referee and other checks – The Chair will conduct referee checks, and other checks (e.g. probity checks) if required, before making a final assessment of each applicant. This process may take up to two weeks.
3. Consultation with delegate – once the Chair has identified their preferred candidate(s), the appropriate approving authorities will be consulted so that a final appointment decision can be made. This may take up to six weeks.
4. Advice to applicants – once a final decision has been made, applicants will be advised of the outcome of their application by email and/or post. This may take up to one week.

Deputy Chair Position description

The role of the Deputy Chair is to assume the role and duties of the RDA Chair, as defined below, whenever the Chair is not available. The Deputy Chair also plays an important role in supporting the Chair in day-to-day matters and has similar skills to the Chair.

The role of the RDA Committee Chair is to lead a diverse organisation of individuals working in a complex environment to deliver high value outcomes for the community and the region. The Chair is a recognised business or regional leader who champions local job creation and sustainable regional growth.

They network widely across industry sectors and attract and facilitate opportunities and investment in their region. They are very knowledgeable about the economic, social, cultural, and environmental opportunities and challenges facing their region; well-connected and a strong advocate for their region; and draw their community together to build and drive economic growth.

The RDA Chair provides strategic direction and leadership to the RDA Committee and ensures corporate governance arrangements are effectively designed and implemented. They demonstrate strong leadership to the Committee and have a sound understanding of board or committee performance management, including people and organisational management processes.

Accountabilities and responsibilities

The RDA Deputy Chair will be accountable to:

- The Chair – for supporting the activities of the Committee.
- RDA Committee Operation Team – for providing a safe and healthy workplace.
- Their communities – for delivering outcomes that meet regional needs.
- The funding providers – for ensuring that agreed objectives are achieved, and resources invested are expended as efficiently and effectively as possible; and

The RDA Deputy Chair will be responsible for supporting the RDA Committee to meet the requirements of the charter, deliver against the outcomes, reporting requirements and performance measures specified in Funding Agreements which enable the operations of RDA Far North, and for the good operational and financial governance of the overall organisation.

Selection criteria

RDA Deputy Chairs are expected to be able to demonstrate a high level of:

1. Leadership and governance – A successful applicant will have a very high degree of experience and capability in leading organisations and be able to demonstrate a high degree of knowledge of the governance and performance management principles that apply. They have most likely chaired a board or committee and/or led an organisation and achieved successful and sustainable outcomes in this role(s). They will be very familiar with the types of processes required to manage an organisation, board or committee and have experience leading a group of people in a complex setting.
2. Delivery focus – A successful applicant will have had significant experience in actively and substantively contributing to the leadership of high performing organisations that have had success in achieving difficult outcomes within tight deadlines and in a complex environment.
3. Business acumen – A successful applicant will have an extensive history of making very good business decisions under pressure and being able to quickly identify and seize business opportunities when they present themselves. They have most likely had a very successful career in business or in a commercially oriented public sector or not-for-profit organisation and will be recognised as a business leader in any of these sectors.
4. Stakeholder engagement – A successful applicant will have been successful in managing a broad range of stakeholders in a complex environment to facilitate the achievement of very successful outcomes. They will have a high degree of experience in managing complex relationships including how to manage conflict between stakeholders.
5. Representational skills – A successful applicant will have had extensive experience representing regional, business and/or industry interests in a variety of forums. They are recognised as a business, industry and/or regional leader and are regularly called upon to represent these groups as appropriate. They have a sound understanding of the complexities involved in representing a diverse set of people and views that typically exist within a region, business and/or industry groups and can articulate what is necessary to be successful in such a role.

6. Commitment to the region – To be successful, an applicant will be expected to have a deep commitment to the region. They will have significant personal and business networks, be able to clearly articulate the key issues facing the region and how the RDA Committee can broker solutions to these issues. The applicant may live or have lived or have business interests in the region and will be a regional, industry and/or business leader.
7. Specific Skills Set – To complement the existing skillset of the RDA Far North Committee, applicants with a background in any of the following areas will be prioritised in the selection process.
 - Agri-tech
 - Energy
 - Finance
 - regional communications
 - community planning for live, work and play
